FOR THE ISLAMIC STATE

BOOK 3

PRIMARY PRINTING

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الحمد لله معز الإسلام بنصره، ومُذَكِّ الشُّرَكِ بقره، ومُصَرِّفِ الأمور بأمره، ومستدريج الكافرين بمكره، الذي قدَّر الأيام دولاً بعده، وجعل العاقبة للمتقين بفضله، والصلاة والسلام على من أعلَى الله منار الإسلام بسيفه.
أما بعد:

فإنه بفضل الله تعالى، وحسن توفيقه تدخل الدولة الإسلامية اليوم عهداً جديداً، وذلك من خلال وضعها اللبنة الأولى في صرح التعليم الإسلامي القائم على منهج الكتاب، وعلى هدي النبوة وبفهم السلف الصالح والرعييل الأول لها، وبرؤية صافية لا شرقية ولا غربية، ولكن قرآنية نبوية بعيداً عن الأهواء والأباطيل وأضاليل دُعاة الاشتراكية الشرقية، أو الرأسمالية الغربية، أو سماسرة الأُمُزَاب والمناهج المنحرفة في شتى أصقاع الأرض، وبعدما تركت هذه الوافدات الكفرية وتلك الانحرافات البدعية أثرها الواضح في أبناء الأمة الإسلامية، نهضت دولة الخلافة -بتوفيق الله تعالى- بأعباء ردهم إلى جادة التوحيد الزاكية ورمبة الإسلام الواسعة تحت راية الخلافة الراشدة ودوحها الوارفة بعدما اجتالهم الشياطين عنها إلى وهادات الجاهلية وشعابها المهلكة.

وهي اليوم إذ تُقدم على هذه الخطوة من خلال منهجها الجديد والذي لم تدخر وسعاً في اتباع خطى السلف الصالح في إعدادة، حرصاً منها على أن يأتي موافقاً للكتاب والسنة مستمداً مادته منهما لا يحيد عنهما ولا يعدل بهما، في زمن كثر فيه تحريف المنحرفين، وتزييف البطلين، وجفاء المعطلين، وغلوا الغالين.

ولقد كانت كتابة هذه المناهج خطوة على الطريق ولبنة من لبنات بناء صرح الخلافة وهذا الذي كُتب هو جهد القل فإن أصبنا فمن الله وإن اخطأنا فمننا ومن الشيطان والله ورسوله منه بريء ونحن نقبل نصيحة وتسييد كل محب وكما قال الشاعر:

وإن تجد عيباً فسدَّ الخلا قد جلت من لا عيب فيه وعلا

(وأخر دعوانا أن الحمد لله رب العالمين)

The Prophet's Early Life

The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) was born in Makkah about the year 570 AD. His father Abdulla had died before his birth, and his mother Amina died when he was six. He was then adopted by his grandfather, Abdul Muttalib; and when he died two years later, Muhammad came under the guardianship of his uncle, Abu Talib. As a youth he travelled with the trading caravans from Makkah to Asham and southern Arabia. At 25, he was asked by Khadija, a wealthy widow, to go with one of her caravans to Asham. He succeeded in that trade very well. Later, Muhammad and Khadija got married. In his early life, he acquired a good reputation for honesty and wisdom in Makkah.

2. Look at the flag of the Islamic State and then think of the answers to the following questions.

- The other name of the flag is 'Al-Uqaab'. Is it true?
- Who gave it that name?
- Why was it called so?

Our Islamic Flag

The flag of our Islamic State has two colours; black and white. The black colour covers most of the flag. It consists of seven words written in white. It refers to At-tawhid slogan. It declares that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad (peace be upon him) is His Messenger. Moreover, the flag was sealed by the Prophet himself.

The other name of the flag is 'Al-Uqaab' which means the falcon. It is a name given by the Prophet Mohammad (Peace be upon him) for more than one reason. Firstly, the falcon is a strong bird. Secondly, it is sharp-eyed and can fly higher than other birds. Finally, it never eats other animals' hunts.

3. Write T if the statement is true, if not write F.

- a. Atawheed slogan has more than one colour. ()
- b. The flag symbolizes a very strong bird. ()
- c. The Islamic flag is sealed by the prophet Mohammad (peace be upon him). ()
- d. The flag consists of six white words. ()

4. Fill in the blanks with the words given below.

colours hunts consists of slogan sharp-eyed

- a. A-Tawheed is every Muslim's_____.
- b. The falcon is a_____ bird.

الأهداف

١. أن يتحدث الطالب عن بعض المصروفات
عن شهر رمضان

٢. أن يوظف المصروفات في جمل مفيدة

Ramadan

1. Answer the questions.

- What do we usually do in Ramadan?
- Is Ramadan one of the Islamic pillars?

2. Read the text and then underline the positive form of present simple tense and circle the negative forms.

Ramadan, the fasting month, the ninth month of the Muslim's year and the fourth pillar of Islam, is a month when every Muslim except some cases, eats and drinks nothing from early dawn up to sunset for a month. Ramadan is the holiest time of Muslims' life. It makes Muslims more helpful, more patient, and more generous to each other.

In Ramadan, Muslims usually pay great attention to the poor, and look for someone who is in need for help. Some of them prepare food in masjids to break the Muslims' fasting at Maghrib. Some of them don't eat at masjids, they prefer to eat at home.

Muslims often don't drive to masjid, they usually walk early instead. A lot of them take care to pray in the first rows in masjid.

Muslims often meet their friends after doing Al-Isha'a and traweeh prayers. In the late eveings, a lot of Musilms recite some verses from the Glorious Quran.

3. Check your answers in 1.

4. Read the text again and choose a title (a-d) for each paragraph.

- a. Reciting the Glorious Quran
- b. Poor in Ramadan
- c. Praying in the first row
- d. The month of fasting

5. Write T if the statement is true and F if not.

- a. Ramadan is the first Islamic month. ()
- b. All Muslims usually pray in the first row. ()
- c. Muslims in Ramadan help each other. ()
- d. Muslims pray traweeh in all months of the year. ()

Grammar present simple / adverbs of frequency

6. Look and study

Affirmative

I We You They	(always) work	hard.	I (always) work hard. We (always) work hard. You (always) work hard. They (always) work hard.
He She	(usually) works		He (always) works hard. She (always) works hard.
It	doesn't work.		It (always) works.

I always work hard.

Negative

I We You They	don't work	hard.	I don't work hard. We don't work hard. You don't work hard. They don't work hard.
He She It	doesn't work		He doesn't work hard. She doesn't work hard. It doesn't work.

Note : We often use adverbs of frequency; never, rarely, not often, sometimes often, usually, always, with the present simple.

Adverbs of frequency (always usually sometimes often never) usually come before the main verb, but after verb to be. They tell us how often something happens.

Example:

They always enjoy walking to work.

The weather is never cold in summer.

7. Put the adverb of frequency in its correct place.

- She encourages her children to recite the Glorious Quran.(always)
- My aunt misses her five prayers.(never)
- My uncle takes his blind neighbour to a nearby masjid. (sometimes)

Assignment : Put the adverb of frequency in its correct place.

Example: He goes out with his friend. (always)

He always goes out with his friend.

3. What do we call the sport in picture No.1? It is called horse-riding. Now ask and answer about other sports in 1. Work in pairs.

- Which sports in 1 can you practise?
- Which sports in 1 would you like to learn?

4. Read the text.

There are many sports which are widely practised all over the world. However, our favourite sports are horse riding, swimming, fencing and shooting. Horse riding was a symbol of power which helped fighters in the early periods of Islam spread into the east and west. Moreover, Surah Al-Anfal in the Glorious Quran orders Muslims to prepare horses and whatever forces they have to face and frighten the enemy.

It is a good idea to encourage Muslims to practise several sports, like swimming, judo, shooting, jogging etc. So, every Muslim should practise such sports to be strong enough to defeat our enemies.

5. Answer these questions :

- a. What are the favourite sports does the writer mentions?
- b. What sport is a symbol of power?
- c. Which Surah encourages Muslims to face their enemies?
- d. Does Islam encourage horse riding?

Assignment : Fill in the blanks with the words in the box.

Surah	practise	horse	riding	symbol	encourage

- Can

(ride a horse, shoot well, run fast, swim 100 metres, throw discus)

- Can't

(do long jump, do gymnastics, throw hammer, throw javelin).

Now work in pairs.

Assignment :

1-Read the text, and then answer the questions below.

Athletics is the general name for particular competitive sports, including running, jumping and throwing. Athletics takes place in an oval shaped track of eight lanes that encloses a large field . It is divided into two events : track events and throwing events. Track events include hurdles, walking and running while throwing events include javelin, discus and hammer throwing . Running events are in three distances ; short distance from 100m to 400 m, middle distance from 800m to 1500m and long distance from 1000m to 10,000m Jumping events are pole vaulting , high jumping and long jumping , while throwing events are javelin, discus and hammer throwing.

C

Reading

1. Read the passage carefully and underline the description in the picture A, B, or C.
2. Underline the disadvantages of the means of transportation.
3. What is the only advantage mentioned in the description?

In Pakistan most people travel by bus from one town to another. In the less populated parts of the country many journeys take a day and there is a bus only once or twice a week. It is a dangerous means of transportation and the buses sometimes break down. The roads are often in bad condition and the journeys are very slow and uncomfortable. It is a good idea to take food and drink because there are not always restaurants or stores on the route. The buses are usually very crowded with whole families travelling together. Many people sit on the roof where it is very hot in the summer and cold in the winter. The only advantage of this means of transportation is the cost. It is very cheap.

4. Match the words with their meaning.
